

ABOUT BOMBARIO

You are never too old to make your dreams come true. After 20 years of playing around, Rutger Steenbergen, finally sent its first demos in 2021. To his great surprise, the French label Texoane Production immediately responded enthusiastic. New doors started opening up soon.

Many releases followed, and in 2022 with 'Somnium' a well received debut album as well. Even Dutch National Radio paid attention to it. Now he continues his journey as an independent artist, with a new name: Bombario.

"MELODIC AND COMPELLING"

Beautiful chord progressions, symphonic melodies and driving beats: that is the sound of Bombario.

Classically trained and with years of choral experience, Rutger Steenbergen makes Melodic Techno and Progressive House.

Musically, just as challenging, but much more danceable. Get carried away and immerse yourself in the world of Bombario.
